MOVIE REPORT FORM

TITLE Mulan

DIRECTOR Tomy Bancroft, Barry Cook

PRODUCER Disney

1. State the topic of the movie. A girl named Mulan disguises herself as a man to protect her aging father from being drafted into the Chinese militia to combat the huns

2. What is the setting of the film? Include the time, place and mood. The time is around 500. The place is in China. The mood is happy/intense

3. State TEN facts you learned by watching the movie. Each fact must be written in complete sentences, NOT a fragment that starts with "How," "What," "That," or "I learned." Acceptable example: North Korea's current leader is Kim Jong Un.

- a. China was attacked by the Huns
- b. Women were not allowed into the military
- c. China had an emperor
- d. You could be sentenced to death if impersonating a man in the military
- e. One man in every household was to be drafted into the army
- f. The Huns were trying to kill the emperor
- g. The Huns were savages with no conscious
- h. The Chinese fought with swords and bows
- i. Training was harsh in the army
- j. The Chinese worshipped their ancestors in hope for luck and prosperity

3. Choose THREE topics from the movie that were especially interesting to you and write a paragraph response that expands on these interests. Remember, a paragraph is at least 4-5 sentences.

- a. My first topic is the fact that women were not allowed into the military. This is interesting because it shows how far back sexism goes. Women were expected to do housework and chores. They weren't thought of to be strong and go off to war. They were also expected to be dominated by men.

- b. The next topic is, why did one man in every family have to go into war. This makes no sense because what if a man has only one child, and that child is a girl what if he is a old man and cannot even fight? What's the point of bringing people with no strength into the army? The Chinese must know these men will die!

- c. My last topic is, why did the Huns want to invade China so much. In the movie it never really gave much insight as to why the Huns wanted to invade China so much. The only thing it really says in the movie is that they want to kill the emperor. But what did he ever do to you? My guess is that the Chinese took the native land from the Huns in order to expand their country, but I guess we'll never know. From the movie at least

4. Explain why you chose to watch this movie. _____

I choose to watch this movie because I really like the songs in it. I also choose it because the characters are so cool. The charecters are cool because they have swords, and they are so unique.

5. What is your opinion of the movie? Why or why not did you like it? Explain. _____

I liked the movie very much. I liked it because of all the singing, the action, the drama and the comedy. I also liked it because it shows how a girl can make a big difference. This really supports gender equality, which is a rising issue in the world.

6. Would you recommend this movie to a friend? Why or why not? _____

I would definitely recommend this to a friend. There is so much to learn from it. Like woman's rights and how things were in ancient China. This movie is based on a ancient Chinese poem which is really cool.

*I am aware that my child watched this movie as a part of the Asia Project for his/her language arts class.
